

I support the granting of authority to New York State to re-align area codes outside of the scope of area code relief.

I believe that individual states are in a far better position to determine the needs of the individual towns, cities or counties in this respect.